

Holt County Sentinel.

Oregon, Missouri.

FRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 10, 1885.

Agents.
The following named gentlemen are authorized agents for the Sentinel, and will receive subscriptions and advertising and make collections for the same:
J. S. WILLIAMS, 97 Chestnut st., St. Louis.
WILLIAM HODGKINS, Mound City, Mo.
GEORGE WEBER, Forest City, Mo.
F. W. WALTER, Irish Grove, Mo.
F. W. WALTER, Hemme's Landing, Mo.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Price Current.
We have arranged to furnish a weekly retail market report, commencing this week.

Land and Real Estate Sales.
During the past week, many transactions in land and real estate, some of them important, have taken place, but for reasons before stated, we forbear to chronicle them. The prospects are that we will be able to resume our reports in a few weeks.

Forest City Brewery.
Attention is called to the card of Messrs. KRAUSS & ROECKER, Forest City, Mo. They have lately enlarged their brewery, and are now able to supply all orders for beer. The enlargement became necessary from the fact that they were before unable to supply the increasing demand. The Forest City beer has become deservedly popular.

Personal.
On Wednesday last, we had the pleasure of a call from Col. BONHAM, of Andrew county. The Colonel was on his return from Rockport, where, in response to a call, he addressed the citizens on the new Constitution. But for a slight indisposition, the Col. would have addressed the citizens of this place. He expressed a willingness to return for this purpose at any time the people might designate.

Arrest of Mail Robbers.
U. S. Marshall CHAS. J. LEONARD, of Washington, D. C., was in town on Wednesday, having in custody two prisoners charged with robbing the mails. Their names are BENTLEY and HARDEN. They reside in the Tarkio Bottom, in this county. It appears that in June last, while the mail was being conveyed over the Tarkio, a bag was washed away. It was found some time in last month by these parties, and rifled of its contents, embracing a large amount of money and checks. Information to this effect being conveyed to the department, the parties have been thus promptly arrested. They are to be tried at St. Joseph.

Peterson's Magazine.
We are in the receipt of this popular Lady's Magazine for December. It is a splendid number. The principal engraving, "Papa, Papa," is one of great beauty. In 1886 it will be greatly improved: the reading matter will be increased, and each number will contain a double-size fashion plate, elegantly colored, with from four to six figures—making "Peterson's" the cheapest in the world. The terms will remain two dollars a year to single subscribers. To clubs it is cheaper still, viz: five copies for $8.00, eight copies for $12.00, or fourteen copies for $20.00. To every person getting up a club, (at these rates,) the Publisher will send an extra copy gratis. Specimens sent (if written for) to those wishing to get up clubs. Address, post-paid, CHARLES J. PETERSON, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

More Valuable than Treasury Notes.
How that old cynic, Sam Johnson, would have revelled through Webster's massive new Unabridged! How he would have gloated over its magnificent letter-press and its illustrations, beautiful as the new Treasury Notes, and much more valuable to the student. The Merriams have incurred a fabulous expense in having the whole work rewritten, reset, recast, and republished. It is not a mere revision, but a reconstruction. To insure excellence in typography, it comes from the Riverside Press, which is all that need be said about its mechanical execution. It is a marvelous specimen of learning, labor, research, and taste. It is by far the greatest literary work of the age.—[Baltimore Am.]

Autumn—From the Poets.
The falling leaves and frosts are with us again. The dying summer is attended by the beautiful colors of fading leaves and foliage, and the birth of winter will soon transpire.—[St. Joseph Union, 27th ult.]

Now the leaf incessant rustles from the mournful grove; Oft startling such as, studious, walk below, And slowly circles through the waving air. But should a quicker breeze amid the boughs Sob, o'er the sky the leafy deluge streams; Till, choked and matted with the dreary shower, The forest-walks, at every rising gale, Roll wide the wither'd waste, and whistle bleak.

COLD SNAP.—Yesterday morning the pools that had been formed by the rain of the day previous, were all covered by a thin skin of ice. The sudden change within the past few days has plainly indicated that autumn may be considered as officially proclaimed, especially by the milliners and mantau makers.—[St. Jo. Union, 29th ult.]

The dark clouds that envelop the city portend snow. As a natural consequence wood has advanced, and fuel of all kinds much sought after.—[St. Jo. Union 2d.]

From all the livid east, or piercing north, Thick clouds ascend; in whose capacious womb A vapory deluge lies, to snow congeal'd.

Illuminated wide, The dewy-skirted clouds imbibe the sun, And through their lucid veil his softened force Shed o'er the peaceful world.

With the foregoing seasonable quotations, which we think render justice, we are satisfied to let Autumn alone.

CITY HOTEL.

MARY A. KRAUSS & D. W. MARTIN, Props'rs. Oregon, Missouri.

THIS house has a superior location, being within two minutes walk of the post office and court house; is on a main street running east and west. It has recently changed proprietors and has undergone a thorough renovation and refitting, thus making it equal in its appointments to any first class hotel in the west. Its tables will always be filled with the best the market affords. There is a stable, well furnished and convenient connected with the house.

TAKEN UP.

BY J. W. Fields, at his residence in Benton Township, Holt county, Missouri, one pair of red brindle work oxen, with some white on their bellies, and the bush of their tails white, one is six, and the other is nine years old, one is marked with a swallow-fork and a hole in the right ear, and the other with a hole in the left ear, and branded on the right horn with "L. M. B." and "L. B." on the right hip. Said oxen have no other marks or brands perceptible. Appraised at 100 dollars by Colman Meek and John D. Fields, and posted before the undersigned, a Justice of the Peace for and in Benton Township, Holt county, Missouri, this 10th day of October, A. D. 1885.

GET THE BEST!

THE LIFE AND PUBLIC SERVICES

OF

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

BY HENRY J. RAYMOND.

This is the best Life of Lincoln out, from the fact that it contains every Message, Speech, and Public Document that has ever been given to the public, and many that have never been given to the public heretofore. It also contains "The Anecdotes and Personal Reminiscences of Abraham Lincoln," by Frank B. Carpenter, who enjoyed six months familiar intercourse with our late President. This is a truthful, impartial, and standard biography and history, and will throw light upon many subjects that have heretofore appeared dark and obscure, especially the Peninsular campaign, and the subsequent disasters under Pope, and places the blame upon those who were at fault.
